Flex Days.

We believe that students learn more when they are active, social, and creative learners. Flex Days are one of the key innovations of RCS, and allow teachers and students to explore topics in depth, and often across disciplines. Flex Days occur over seven Thursday's during which regular classes are cancelled. Students instead meet in small groups to pursue projects in a subject area or to engage in "citizenship" activities.

Citizenship

Our goal is to teach and model the building blocks of citizenship within the school schedule and curriculum. We are constantly developing ways to integrate community learning into the school.

Ex Days.

Ex Days extend the usual 55-minute class period to 110 minutes, so that students meet in periods 1, 3 and 5 on Thursday and then 2, 4 and 6 on Friday, allowing the teachers to do in-depth labs, rehearsals, seminars, practice sessions or group work. These also occur five times per semester.
